HORRIBLE DANGER OF DELAY

Now is the Accepted Time and the Day of Salvation—Thrilling Relation of an Incident Connected With a Drunken Man and One Who Makes Men Drunk.

The usual service of song held sway at the rink last night, in the presence of a great audience. Mrs. Ida Watkins at the piano and Miss Emma Maple at the organ. Rev. J. C. Taggart read the scripture lesson, followed in prayer by Rev. McKelvey, of Calcutta. Weeden rendered a solo, the choir making melody in the chorus. Rev. Sloane led in short prayer. Saturday night, Schiverea will give an address entitled the "Five Steps of a Drunkard." Men will occupy the lower floor, and the ladies will go to the gallery. Mass meeting for men alone on Sunday afternoon, at three o'clock.

Weeden rendered "Can save a poor sinner like me," and Rev. O'Meara, rector of St. Stephen's church, offered an earnest prayer.

"The 11th verse, 9th chapter of Zachariah. 'Turn ye to the stronghold, ye prisoners of hope.' There are prisoners of hope and prisoners without hope, even in a spiritual sense, and I am very much afraid that there are some here tonight without hope. You were acquainted with men who once worked in the potteries; they were prisoners of hope. They have passed away, and if they died without Jesus, without having accepted Christ as the son of the living God, they are now prisoners without hope, doomed to never ending misery in hell; they have taken up their abode with the damned. If this book is true, they have gone into eternal darkness, shut up with the doomed and the damned. They have no just cause of complaint against their punishment, awful as it is to contemplate. They were born in a land of Bibles, in a land of churches, where the ministers of the gospel preached to them in burning, fervid eloquence, giving them warning, time after time, of the awful doom in store for them if they neglected this great salvation. But they laughed it all to scorn and continued in their sin, and they have their reward. God called a halt upon their sinful lives. Men, there comes a time when God does call a halt upon sinners and sin, and he may call a halt upon some in my presence this very night, and doom you to eternal destruction. Those of your companions who died in sin know all about hell tonight. They went to that awful place because they refused God's offer of love and mercy, just as you are refusing it tonight. Men, you hear the church bells ringing out the invitation of 'come to Jesus; you hear your friends pleading with you to accept Christ; you acknowledge that the Christian life is the right one to live; and yet you harden your hearts and refuse to accept the Savior. Oh, men of East Liverpool, there is an awful doom overhanging you.

"We read of the lost soul in hell lifting up his eyes to heaven and crying for a drop of water to cool his parched tongue. That soul had refused Christ and was doomed to eternal torment; no shadow of hope for him. An infidel, or one who is trying to be an infidel, said to me in this city: 'How could such a thing be? If I was in heaven, and could see a loved one in hell, I'd be as miserable as a man could be; there would be no heaven or happiness for me there.' Poor, weak, foolish sinner. There can be no sorrow in heaven, there can be but eternal, never-ending joy and happiness; the days of misery and sorrow are forever over; there is not the shadow of a possibility of sorrow. But, oh the suffering in hell! The lost soul can see and appreciate the happiness of heaven, but is doomed to remain outside forever. The only prayer which our God refuses, is the prayer of the lost soul. You'll remember in hell all the lost opportunities on this earth; the gospel meetings, the tender, pathetic, touching songs of invitation to come to Jesus; the meetings in this rink; the prayers of wives and mothers; you'll remember everything of this kind, men, and the memory will add to the keenness of your suffering.

"I went to five different men last night, and each man acknowledged that the Christian course and life is the right one—the only safe one. And yet they went out of this rink without taking Jesus as their Savior. Oh, men, won't it be awful if they are damned, after the acknowledgment they made to me.

"I went to your fire department today and received a cordial welcome. While there, the gong struck, and the well-trained horses, taught to understand their business and do their duty, sprang to their places without a moment's hesitation. But how hard it is to teach men this lesson of obedience to duty. If the men of this city would respond to this duty as did those admirably trained horses today, Liverpool would be for God, without the shadow of a doubt. But foolish men run from God; run, run, run; yes, run away from mercy, tenderness, loving kindness; run away from heaven and an eternity of bliss. Isn't it wonderful, men? Isn't it contrary to reason and common sense?

"After the horses had performed their duty, someone ordered them back to their stalls, and they were given a choice meal for their obedience. I imagine, if those horses can talk, one would say to the other: 'Well, old fellow, it paid us to be obedient; it paid us to do our duty; just see what a dandy nice meal we have as our reward.' Oh, men, think for a moment of the wondrous blessings God has in his storehouse for those who are obedient and who obey his commands; the blessings of happy homes, love and joy and peace and contentment here on earth, and joy and love, in the presence of God, for all eternity.

"When we were at the meeting at Burford's today, a poor drunkard went into a saloon in that neighborhood. A short time afterward he was thrown out violently upon the pavement, and the brutal saloonkeeper hurled him to earth and then beat his head upon the pavement until the miserable wretch was unconscious. Possibly he had got all the money the poor wretch had, and then pitched him out and brutally beat him because he imported him for a drink. Workingmen of East Liverpool, I pray God that you will give that saloonkeeper no more of your money, but that you will compel him to go to work and earn an honest living; perhaps he may be compelled to sweat, and that will kill him. 'Amen!' rang out a hearty voice, and Schiverea said: 'Men, do you mean that?' Oh, men of East Liverpool, if there ever was a time when God wants men to work against the saloon, that time is just now. God helping me, I'll do everything in my power against this monstrous curse, this awful iniquity, this damnable liquor traffic.

"Men, be careful. There comes a time when God may give you up to your reprobate life; a day when, although living and moving on this earth, you will be as fully and completely doomed as you will be when you are in hell. The man sentenced to be hanged—he is doomed long before he dies; so with the man who has been given up by God for constant hardening of his heart against the spirit's pleadings.

"Men, don't dare occupy the seat of the scornful. The day will come when the awful doom will be pronounced upon you, 'depart from me, I never knew you.' My very soul is burdened over the thought of thousands who nightly assemble in this rink to hear the message of the Master. God have mercy upon your never-dying souls.

"I found a poor drunkard hid away under a wagon in the city of New York. I called him out and told him I had good news for him from a good and true friend. When I had his mind fastened upon what I was saying to him, I told him the story of Jesus and his love. He looked at me as if horror-struck and then pushed me away, saying: 'Go away from me, man, go away, from me; let me alone. I'm too far gone. There was a time when I was a good man, and when I went to church. I want you to understand that I was not always a friendless, miserable sot. I had a happy home, and a happy wife and children. Yes, I went to church, and the spirit of God pleaded with me. But I refused to accept Jesus, and dived deeper into sin. My life is ruined. Everything that I loved I have lost. All my dear ones are under the ground, and it won't be long before I'm there also. I have come to my present wretched condition because I rejected Christ. Man, there is no help for me. You only add to my agony. Go away and leave me; it is too late, too late! Men, that poor, doomed wretch staggered away into the night, without a shadow of hope. Oh, such a doom is too horrid to think of. And yet it is your doom, just as sure as you live and breathe, if you continue to reject Christ, and now is your only time for repentance—now, now, now.

"I knew a prisoner in jail who had just been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the penitentiary, being unable to pay a certain sum of money. The jailor came for him and he said to me: 'Good bye, Schiverea. I've got to take my medicine.' To his surprise the jailor said: 'No sir, you are a free man.' Then the poor fellow glanced at him reproachfully and said: 'You shouldn't trifle with me in this manner: my punishment is hard enough to bear without that addition.' But the jailor made reply: 'I'm not joking, my man. God forbid. Your brother has paid the penalty and you are a free man.' Oh, how that poor fellow turned to his loving brother when the latter greeted him at the jail door.

"Men, we were doomed to eternal torment; but Jesus stepped in, in his wonderful mercy and loving kindness, and paid the penalty; yes, he paid the fine, and his great, loving heart is wide open for your reception; here's a pardon, full and free, for all the sins you have committed; from sins of drunkenness, gambling, licentiousness, dishonesty, lying, deceit, sins of every kind. God will wash them all away with the blood of his own dear son.

"Five men in a prison in Pennsylvania were granted a pardon. The deal was unknown to them, and one of the number was so happy that he was absolutely dazed. When the full import of the pardon was grasped in his mind, he took the pardon and clasped it close to his heart, his face beaming with the joy which had come into his life. Five men pardoned out of 2,700. The 2,695 doomed to serve out their sentences. The governor pardoned and made happy five men; the rest had no hope for liberty until they served out their time.

"I want to say right here, under authority of the highest order, that I have a free pardon for every sinner, signed by the Governor of heaven; a pardon which will not cost the poor sinner a single penny; a pardon secured by and through the atonement made by the Son of God, the blessed Jesus. All that is necessary is to accede to the terms of the gospel—simply accept Jesus as your Savior and endeavor to lead a clean and pure life.

Suppose that pardoned prisoner had looked at the paper which gave him his liberty and then dashed it down upon the floor and planted his heel upon it and said: 'I don't want this pardon. I despise it, and here I grind it into atoms beneath my feet.' What would you say the governor should do? Why, you'd say the governor ought to leave him in prison, the ungrateful fellow, until he would rot.

"Oh, men and women of East Liverpool, you've been thrusting the pardon offered you by the blessed Jesus to one side for years; you have placed your feet upon it and despised it and vowed you wanted none of it; that you choose rather to remain in the vile prison of sin. May my God show you your foolishness before it is everlastingly too late. God have mercy on your souls."

You have a warm invitation to attend the meeting tonight.

MOVING TODAY.

M. S. Simms is Now Engaged in the Livery Business at Pittsburgh.

M. S. Simms, who left this city some time ago to engage in the livery business in Pittsburgh, came home yesterday, and is moving his family to that city today, where they will make their future home. Mr. Simms was so unfortunate as to lose a valuable horse Sunday night. He hired a rig to a man to go to Schenley park, but the fellow went to Manchester instead. The horse became frightened and ran off, and in going over a trestle, went through and broke its two front legs. The animal was part of a match team, which was valued at $600, and would have been sold this week, as Mr. Simms had a deal almost closed. Suit will be entered to recover damages.

TRADES COUNCIL.

An Entertainment Committee Appointed Last Night.

The regular meeting of Trades council was held last night, a large number of the members being present. Arrangements are being made for the reception of William A. Carney, president of the Labor league of Pittsburgh, who will give an address on organized labor in this city some night next week. An entertainment committee composed of M. A. McKeown, John Powell and J. J. Weisend, whose duty it shall be to hunt up essays on labor and to get speakers to address the council at future meetings, was appointed.

JOINED TOGETHER.

A Couple From the Country United in Marriage Here Yesterday.

Squire Manley was rudely disturbed by the violent ringing of the door bell at his home on East Market street, yesterday about noon. Going to the door to ascertain the reason of this unusual occurrence, he beheld a young man standing there who anxiously and impatiently inquired of the squire if he was the man who joined together young hearts and made them happy. The squire answered in the affirmative, and then the young man wanted to know if it was possible to procure a license and have the knot tied that day. The squire assured the young man that if he would call in the evening with his intended, all would be in readiness to have the event take place. This was agreed upon and a little after 7 o'clock the couple arrived, and after giving their names, Devern Coburn, living about two miles northeast of the city, and Miss Alice E. Palmer, the ceremony was performed.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Dr. E. J. Marshall Talks Plainly to Falsifiers.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—You are a believer in fair play, and I ask for the application of this rule in my case. My enemies are spreading the report that, if elected to council, I will be in favor of a certain clique or ring. This is as false as is the boss of hades, and the story originated in the mind of one of Satan's employees. I hereby warn all union workmen of East Liverpool that this infamous falsehood against me was conceived in sin, in the office of an unfair paper, especially devoted to antagonizing all union labor, and especially devoted to the payment of low wages. To all fair men, I simply say that I am devoted to the very best interests of East Liverpool, first, last and all the time, and that no man or body of men on earth can induce me to do an unprincipled act, whereby I would lose my self-respect. And I would add that I know the brain which used his tool to put out derogatory reports respecting me, and shall pay my respects to him in due time.

R. J. MARSHALL.

JOE BRATT AGAIN.

Was Arrested Last Night for Making Speeches and Being Disorderly.

Joe Bratt is again incarcerated. He was arrested on Sixth street last night by Marshal Wyman. The Salvation Army band was discoursing sacred melodies in one of the corners of the Diamond, and Joe close by was executing a variety of fancy steps, and manipulating a broom in lieu of a drum major's staff, in perfect time to the music. When the band stopped playing, Joe, amid the plaudits of numerous spectators, bowed in graceful acknowledgment. Just at this moment the marshal appeared, and yanked Joe down to the jail, struggling and making a vigorous resistance against arrest. Bratt will probably be handed over to the township trustees, who will send him to the infirmary.

Henry Jones was drunk this afternoon and was acting disorderly in front of the Thompson house. Officer Whan arrested him and he was taken to city hall. He has not been arraigned yet.

THE MIDDLE PLACE.

When Destitute People Want Help They Come Here.

The township trustees say that no one has any idea of the amount of people that come to them for assistance when they become stranded. If they come from Wheeling and want to go to Pittsburgh, they stop here, and the trustees usually send them as far as Rochester. If they come from Pittsburgh and are on their way to Wheeling, they stop here, and are sent to Steubenville. Occasionally one makes a mistake and gets off at Wells-ville, and then some good, kind hearted citizen of that village gives him five cents and sends him up here, where he immediately hunts up the township trustees office, and makes his wishes known. It is cheaper to get rid of these destitute people by sending them out of the city than by keeping them here and feeding them.

FELL IN THE MUD.

A Youngster Stumbles and is Almost Drowned in the Mud.

A little boy on his way to school on the Calcutta road yesterday was some distance away from the building when the bell rang, and fearing lest he should be late, struck out manfully to make the best use of the time. Suddenly he stumbled and fell headlong in the mud in the road, and when he arose he was indeed a pitiable, yet somewhat laughable, sight. He was completely covered with mud from head to foot, and mournfully retraced his steps towards home.

SITUATION UNCHANGED.

Strikers Say That a Speedy Settlement is Not Probable.

A number of the miners who are on strike at Sallenville were in the city yesterday calling on friends. They say the situation remains unchanged and the prospect of a speedy settlement is very remote. Many of the strikers are in destitute condition and some aid is promised from sympathizers in this city.

THE RIVER COMMITTEE

Will Arrive In This City Saturday Afternoon.

ARRANGEMENTS WILL BE MADE

By the Board of Commerce to Entertain Them—Meeting of Members Will Be Held Tonight—The Committee Will Probably Be Here Five or Six Hours.

The board of commerce will meet tonight to make arrangements for the reception of the river and harbor committee, which will arrive in this city on the steamer Virginia Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. It is probable that the committee will spend the entire afternoon here, during which time they will be shown over the city and through the potteries by the committee that is appointed by the board at its session tonight. Every effort will be made to show the city to its best advantage, and to impress upon the minds of the members of the committee the necessity of improvement in the Ohio river.

The following letter, which was received by Mr. J. J. Purinton this morning, will also be acted upon, and the questions answered to the best ability of the board:

WASHINGTON, D. C. Mar. 4, 1896.

SIR:—In order that they may give more intelligent consideration to pending and proposed legislation, the sub-committee of the committee on ways and means of the house of representatives, in charge of bills relating to reciprocity arrangements and commercial treaties, desire an expression of the views and opinions of the commercial and industrial organizations of the United States, upon the following points, namely:

First—Was the effect of the reciprocity arrangements negotiated by the government with certain foreign nations under the authority of the tariff act of 1890, favorable or unfavorable to the foreign commerce of the United States?

Second—What was the effect of their repeal by the tariff act of 1894?

Third—Is it expedient and advisable to apply the reciprocity principle to future tariff legislation, and to enact a general law authorizing the president to negotiate reciprocity treaties with foreign nations as far as possible?

Fourth—What can be accomplished by diplomatic negotiations in extending the export trade of the United States?

If you will present these subjects to the members of your organization, and request them at their early convenience to take some formal action thereon, we shall be greatly obliged. I am, sir, your obedient servant,

A. J. HOPKINS,
Chairman sub-committee on reciprocity and commercial treaties.

SURPRISED THE PASTOR.

The German Lutheran Church Surprised Their Minister Last Night.

After conducting the Lenten services at the German Evangelical Lutheran church last night, Reverend Reinartz went home, little suspecting the surprise that was in store for him. He had hardly laid aside his ministerial robe, when he was summoned to the door, and, on opening, he saw before him the smiling faces of almost the entire congregation. Their kindly feelings towards pastor and wife were not only expressed in their faces, but they brought with them substantial evidences of their good will. This was due to their pastor having announced to them last Sunday that he had declined the call to a flourishing congregation at Green Bay, Wis., the home of Mrs. Reinartz's parents, in order to carry out the long cherished wish of erecting a new house of worship. Under the almost 10 years pastorate the congregation has grown from a handful to a large body of energetic, self-denying people in the cause of Christ.

A BIG RIVER.

Rivermen Predict a Heavy Rise—No Serious Danger Apprehended.

Rivermen say that we can expect a big river and that preparations are being made to prevent any damage that may occur from it. Already the swell has commenced and the heavy rain and snow among the mountains in Pennsylvania will bring the stage of water up to a high mark. The Ben Hur passed this morning and the Hudson came down from Pittsburgh last night loaded down to the water's edge with freight. She carried an unusual large cargo this trip, more than has been carried on any one preceding trip by her during the past six months. The Virginia is due up from Cincinnati tomorrow. The Hustler, a small trading boat, is tied up at the wharf at this place.

Oh, such a doom is too horrible to think of. And yet it is your doom, just as sure as you live and breathe, if you continue to reject Christ, and now is your only time for repentance—now, now, now.

"I knew a prisoner in jail who had just been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the penitentiary, being unable to pay a certain sum of money. The jailor came for him and he said to me: 'Good bye, Schiverea. I've got to take my medicine.' To his surprise the jailor said: 'No sir, you are a free man.' Then the poor fellow

glanced at him reproachfully and said: 'You shouldn't trifle with me in this manner; my punishment is hard enough to bear without that addition.' But the jailor made reply: 'I'm not joking, my man. God forbid. Your brother has paid the penalty and you are a free man.' Oh, how that poor fellow turned to his loving brother when the latter greeted him at the jail door.

"Men, we were doomed to eternal torment; but Jesus stepped in, in his wonderful mercy and loving kindness, and paid the penalty; yes, he paid the fine, and his great, loving heart is wide open for your reception; here's a pardon, full and free, for all the sins you have committed; from sins of drunkenness, gambling, licentiousness, dishonesty, lying, deceit, sins of every kind. God will wash them all away with the blood of his own dear son.

"Five men in a prison in Pennsylvania were granted a pardon. The deal was unknown to them, and one of the number was so happy that he was absolutely dazed. When the full import of the pardon was grasped in his mind, he took the pardon and clasped it close to his heart, his face beaming with the joy which had come into his life. Five men pardoned out of 2,700. The 2,695 doomed to serve out their sentences. The governor pardoned and made happy five men; the rest had no hope for liberty until they served out their time.

"I want to say right here, under authority of the highest order, that I have a free pardon for every sinner, signed by the Governor of heaven; a pardon which will not cost the poor sinner a single penny; a pardon secured by and through the atonement made by the Son of God, the blessed Jesus. All that is necessary is to accede to the terms of the gospel—simply accept Jesus as your Savior and endeavor to lead a clean and pure life.

Suppose that pardoned prisoner had looked at the paper which gave him his liberty and then dashed it down upon the floor and planted his heel upon it and said: 'I don't want this pardon. I despise it, and here I grind it into atoms beneath my feet.' What would you say the governor should do? Why, you'd say the governor ought to leave him in prison, the ungrateful fellow, until he would rot.

"Oh, men and women of East Liverpool, you've been thrusting the pardon offered you by the blessed Jesus to one side for years; you have placed your feet upon it and despised it and vowed you wanted none of it; that you choose rather to remain in the vile prison of sin. May my God show you your foolishness before it is everlastingly too late. God have mercy on your souls.

You have a warm invitation to attend the meeting tonight.

MOVING TODAY.

M. S. Simms is Now Engaged in the Livery Business at Pittsburgh.

M. S. Simms, who left this city some time ago to engage in the livery business in Pittsburgh, came home yesterday, and is moving his family to that city today, where they will make their future home. Mr. Simms was so unfortunate as to lose a valuable horse Sunday night. He hired a rig to a man to go to Schenley park, but the fellow went to Manchester instead. The horse became frightened and ran off, and in going over a trestle, went through and broke its two front legs. The animal was part of a match team, which was valued at $600, and would have been sold this week, as Mr. Simms had a deal almost closed. Suit will be entered to recover damages.

TRADES COUNCIL.

An Entertainment Committee Appointed Last Night.

The regular meeting of Trades council was held last night, a large number of the members being present. Arrangements are being made for the reception of William A. Carney, president of the Labor league of Pittsburgh, who will give an address on organized labor in this city some night next week. An entertainment committee composed of M. A. McKeown, John Powell and J. J. Welsend, whose duty it shall be to hunt up essays on labor and to get speakers to address the council at future meetings, was appointed.

JOINED TOGETHER.

A Couple From the Country United in Marriage Here Yesterday.

Squire Manley was rudely disturbed by the violent ringing of the door bell at his home on East Market street, yesterday about noon. Going to the door to ascertain the reason of this unusual occurrence, he beheld a young man standing there who anxiously and impatiently inquired of the squire if he was the man who joined together young hearts and made them happy. The squire answered in the affirmative, and then the young man wanted to know if it was possible to procure a license and have the knot tied that day. The squire assured the young man that if he would call in the evening with his intended, all would be in readiness to have the event take place. This was agreed upon and a little after 7 o'clock the couple arrived, and after giving their names, Devern Coburn, living about two miles northeast of the city, and Miss Alice E. Palmer, the ceremony was performed.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Dr. R. J. Marshall Talks Plainly to Falsifiers.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—You are a believer in fair play, and I ask for the application of this rule in my case. My enemies are spreading the report that, if elected to council, I will be in favor of a certain clique or ring. This is as false as is the boss of hades, and the story originated in the mind of one of Satan's employees. I hereby warn all union workmen of East Liverpool that this infamous falsehood against me was conceived in sin, in the office of an unfair paper, especially devoted to antagonizing all union labor, and especially devoted to the payment of low wages. To all fair men, I simply say that I am devoted to the very best interests of East Liverpool, first, last and all the time, and that no man or body of men on earth can induce me to do an unprincipled act, whereby I would lose my self-respect. And I would add that I know the brain which used his tool to put out derogatory reports respecting me, and shall pay my respects to him in due time.

R. J. MARSHALL.

JOE BRATT AGAIN.

Was Arrested Last Night for Making Speeches and Being Disorderly.

Joe Bratt is again incarcerated. He was arrested on Sixth street last night by Marshal Wyman. The Salvation Army band was discoursing sacred melodies in one of the corners of the Diamond, and Joe close by was executing a variety of fancy steps, and manipulating a broom in lieu of a drum major's staff, in perfect time to the music. When the band stopped playing, Joe, amid the plaudits of numerous spectators, bowed in graceful acknowledgment. Just at this moment the marshal appeared, and yanked Joe down to the jail, struggling and making a vigorous resistance against arrest. Bratt will probably be handed over to the township trustees, who will send him to the infirmary.

Henry Jones was drunk this afternoon and was acting disorderly in front of the Thompson house. Officer Whan arrested him and he was taken to city hall. He has not been arraigned yet.

THE MIDDLE PLACE.

When Destitute People Want Help They Come Here.

The township trustees say that no one has any idea of the amount of people that come to them for assistance when they become stranded. If they come from Wheeling and want to go to Pittsburgh, they stop here, and the trustees usually send them as far as Rochester. If they come from Pittsburgh and are on their way to Wheeling, they stop here, and are sent to Steubenville. Occasionally one makes a mistake and gets off at Wells-ville, and then some good, kind hearted citizen of that village gives him five cents and sends him up here, where he immediately hunts up the township trustees office, and makes his wishes known. It is cheaper to get rid of these destitute people by sending them out of the city than by keeping them here and feeding them.

FELL IN THE MUD.

A Youngster Stumbles and is Almost Drowned in the Mud.

A little boy on his way to school on the Calcutta road yesterday was some distance away from the building when the bell rang, and fearing lest he should be late, struck out manfully to make the best use of the time. Suddenly he stumbled and fell headlong in the mud in the road, and when he arose he was indeed a pitiable, yet somewhat laughable, sight. He was completely covered with mud from head to foot, and mournfully retraced his steps towards home.

SITUATION UNCHANGED.

Strikers Say That a Speedy Settlement is Not Probable.

A number of the miners who are on strike at Salineville were in the city yesterday calling on friends. They say the situation remains unchanged and the prospect of a speedy settlement is very remote. Many of the strikers are in destitute condition and some aid is promised from sympathizers in this city.

THE RIVER COMMITTEE

Will Arrive In This City Saturday Afternoon.

ARRANGEMENTS WILL BE MADE

By the Board of Commerce to Entertain Them—Meeting of Members Will Be Held Tonight—The Committee Will Probably Be Here Five or Six Hours.

The board of commerce will meet tonight to make arrangements for the reception of the river and harbor committee, which will arrive in this city on the steamer Virginia Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. It is probable that the committee will spend the entire afternoon here, during which time they will be shown over the city and through the potteries by the committee that is appointed by the board at its session tonight. Every effort will be made to show the city to its best advantage, and to impress upon the minds of the members of the committee the necessity of improvement in the Ohio river.

The following letter, which was received by Mr. J. J. Purinton this morning, will also be acted upon, and the questions answered to the best ability of the board:

WASHINGTON, D. C. Mar. 4, 1896.

SIR:—In order that they may give more intelligent consideration to pending and proposed legislation, the sub-committee of the committee on ways and means of the house of representatives, in charge of bills relating to reciprocity arrangements and commercial treaties, desire an expression of the views and opinions of the commercial and industrial organizations of the United States, upon the following points; namely:

First—What is the effect of the reciprocity arrangements negotiated by the government with certain foreign nations under the authority of the tariff act of 1890, favorable or unfavorable to the foreign commerce of the United States?

Second—What was the effect of their repeal by the tariff act of 1894?

Third—Is it expedient and advisable to apply the reciprocity principle to future tariff legislation, and to enact a general law authorizing the president to negotiate reciprocity treaties with foreign nations as far as possible?

Fourth—What can be accomplished by diplomatic negotiations in extending the export trade of the United States?

If you will present these subjects to the members of your organization, and request them at their early convenience to take some formal action thereon, we shall be greatly obliged. I am, sir, your obedient servant, A. J. HOPKINS, Chairman sub-committee on reciprocity and commercial treaties.

SURPRISED THE PASTOR.

The German Lutheran Church Surprised Their Minister Last Night.

After conducting the Lenten services at the German Evangelical Lutheran church last night, Reverend Rehnartz went home, little suspecting the surprise that was in store for him. He had hardly laid aside his ministerial robe, when he was summoned to the door, and, on opening, he saw before him the smiling faces of almost the entire congregation. Their kindly feelings towards pastor and wife were not only expressed in their faces, but they brought with them substantial evidences of their good will. This was due to their pastor having announced to them last Sunday that he had declined the call to a flourishing congregation at Green Bay, Wis., the home of Mrs. Rehnartz's parents, in order to carry out the long cherished wish of erecting a new house of worship. Under the almost 10 years pastorate the congregation has grown from a handful to a large body of energetic, self-denying people in the cause of Christ.

A BIG RIVER.

Rivermen Predict a Heavy Rise—No Serious Danger Apprehended.

Rivermen say that we can expect a big river and that preparations are being made to prevent any damage that may occur from it. Already the swell has commenced and the heavy rain and snow among the mountains in Pennsylvania will bring the stage of water up to a high mark. The Ben Hur passed up this morning and the Hudson came down from Pittsburgh last night loaded down to the water's edge with freight. She carried an unusual large cargo this trip, more than has been carried on any one preceding trip by her during the past six months. The Virginia is due up from Cincinnati tomorrow. The Hustler, a small trading boat, is tied up at the wharf at this place.

VOTE FOR THE BIBLE.

God's word cannot be put down in
the same list and on the same plane as human creations. God will not permit it, and he will punish here, and
hereafter, those who attempt it.

KILL THE RUMOR.

The cunning politicians have their
unprincipled agents out spreading all manner of false rumors. The latest
is that Mrs. R. B. Whitehead has withdrawn from the contest. Mrs.
Whitehead is authority for the statement that she is in the fight, and will
remain there, by the blessing of God,
until the voters of East Liverpool,
and especially of the Third ward, decide for or against the Bible.

NOT NECESSARY TO VOTE.

The question has been asked the News Review, by a number of lady
voters, as to whether there is any
necessity of them attending the Republican primaries in the Third ward.
There is not the shadow of necessity
for your going to the polls in the Third
ward, at the Republican primaries,
Saturday, March 21, as John N. Taylor and Will L. Smith are the Republican nominees in that ward, and none
others are to be voted for.

VERY CONFIDENT.

After the adjournment of the school
board meeting the other night, a
member of the board addressed John
N. Taylor, asking when the present
members would retire from office. Mr.
Taylor gave the information desired,
and then imparted the further news
that he would still continue on the
board, after the coming election. Now,
the gentleman may have positive
knowledge respecting the ballots to
be deposited in the Third ward on April 6, 1896; but we would remind
him that "the best laid plans of mice
and men," etc. Further, "there's many a slip twixt the cup and the
lip." If John N. Taylor and Will L.
Smith can be elected members of the school board from the Third ward, on
the "No Bible" ticket, then will we be willing to acknowledge that, of a
truth, "mighty is the power of the
cunning politician."

CHRISTIAN MINISTERS.

Christian ministers of East Liver-
pool, you are engaged in a wonderful
work for the Master, in assisting Evangelist Schrivera in the series of meetings being held in the Fifth street rink, and God's blessing will
rest upon and follow you for so doing.
But there is other work which the
Master has for you to do: the defense
of the Bible and your stern insistence
that God's word shall be honored and upheld in the public schools. While you are leading souls to Christ in the
rink, the enemies of the Bible in the
schools of this city are wide awake,
and using every power, fair and un-
fair, to accomplish their wicked end—
the prohibition of the reading of the Bible, by the teachers to the pupils, in the schools. You are the leaders of the Christian men and women of East Liverpool. You are intelligent. You are bold and fearless for the right,
as becometh leaders of Israel. You should use every power God has given
you in advocating the reading of His word in the schools. You should assist in organizing a staunch army of
men and women, led by well posted
and keen-witted men and women,
lovers of the Bible, to meet and check-
mate every unfair move made by the opponents of the Bible. A house-to-
house canvass should be made in every precinct and ward. Be up and
doing, leaders of Christian masses, and
our God will give you the victory.

FRANCE BACKS DOWN.

Didn't Mean to Talk So Bold to England.

THE TRIPLE ALLIANCE ON TOP.

Great Britain Can Now Go Ahead With
Her Campaign in the Sudan—The Troops Will Be Ready to Move on
April 1.

PARIS, March 19.—The French government gives evidence that the announcement made by M. Berthelot, the foreign minister, of the remonstrance he had offered against the Egyptian campaign upon the Nile in a conversation with the Marquis of Duferin, British ambassador, has been taken much more seriously than they were prepared for. The outbreak of approval from the French press
and people and the popular clamor for
even more decisive measures of protest
seem to have alarmed the government
and awakened an apprehension that
they are being precipitated into a position
of hostility to the plan of Great Britain backed by the approval of the
triple alliance, which might entail the gravest consequences. The enthusiasm
awakened in France, in fact, seems to enter more into the apprehensions of
the French ministers than the irritation
abroad.

As a consequence steps have been taken to dull a little the seemingly
sharp edge of the communication made to the British ambassador by M. Berthelot, the minister of foreign affairs. An explanation with a distinct tone of de-
precation is made semi-officially that
the words "gravity of the consequences"
were only intended to apply to the use
of the Egyptian reserve fund, and it is
added M. Berthelot will make a statement to that effect.

It would seem that the triple alliance
has practically triumphed and that there will be no serious opposition upon
the part of France to the British advance up the Nile.
Le Jour, however, declares that Russia and France are in "complete accord
in regard to Egypt." But this may mean little or nothing so far as interfering with the plans of the Marquis of
Salisbury are concerned.

Additional dispatches received here
from Cairo show that the greatest activity prevails among the British Egyptian military officials there and that
every step necessary to arrange for the
departure of the troops from Wady-
Halfa on April 1, as originally planned,
is being taken and that nobody there
seems to doubt that the plan of campaign will be carried out.

Venezuela's Sensible Action.

LONDON, March 19.—It is understood
here that Senor Andrade, the Venezue-
lan minister at Washington, has now decided to recognize the Uruguian incident
as a separate question, and good hopes
are expressed that his entente will lead
to an agreement upon a scheme for the settlement of the boundary dispute by direct negotiations between Great Britain and Venezuela.

A Postmaster's Wife Too Curious.

LANCASTER, Ky., March 19.—Mrs. J.
A. Hammond, wife of the postmaster
at Hobbie, who was arrested for tampering with the mail, has confessed
that she broke open the decoy letter,
with three dollars in it, and did so
through curiosity and not for the purpose of obtaining money, which was replaced.

Our Food Not Adulterated.

LONDON, March 19.—At the session of the committee of the House of Commons on food Mr. T. H. Elliott, secretary of the board of agriculture, testified that among
the samples of food examined by the government 51 came from the United States and 39 from Canada, not one of which was adulterated.

Accused of Smuggling Diamonds.

PHILADELPHIA, March 19.—Herman
Keck, a member of the Coeterman, Hin-
richs, Keck Diamond Cutting company
of Cincinnati, has been held in $3,000
bail by United States Commissioner Bell
to await the action of the grand jury
on the charge of smuggling diamonds
into this country.

Saw Guns Unloaded.

PRETORIA, March 19.—At the trial of
the members of the Johannesburg reform
committee an employee of the
"Simmer Jack" mine testified to seeing
arms and Maxim guns unloaded from
oil tanks. He estimated that 300 cases
of rifles and 24 Maxims were received.

Exonerated the Officials.

ST. LOUIS, March 19.—The coroner's
jury that has been investigating the collision on the Kirkwood Electric line on March 8, in which three men were killed
and about 50 people were injured, has
returned a verdict exonerating officials
of the company.

AMBASSADOR BAYARD'S SPEECHES.

The Censure Resolutions Debated in the House.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The house
has entered upon the consideration of
the resolutions censuring Mr. Bayard
for the speeches delivered by him before
the Grammar school of Boston, Eng-
land, and before the Edinburgh (Scotland) philosophical institution last fall.
The galleries were crowded to over-
flowing. Even the diplomatic gallery,
which is usually empty, contained a
number of the members of the diplomatic corps and their wives. With the exception of the speech of Mr. Cousins
(Iowa), however, the oratory of the occasion was disappointing.

Mr. Hitt, chairman of the foreign affairs committee, and Mr. McCreary,
who was chairman of the committee in
the last congress, opened respectively
for and against the resolutions. Mr.
Draper (Rep., Mass.), announced his
inability to bring himself to vote for
the resolutions of censure. If the utterances were inappropriate the punishment was too harsh.

Mr. Cousins' speech in support of
the resolutions was the feature of the proceedings. He won for himself high distinction as an orator. His bursts of eloquence, set off by a keen and penetrating wit, aroused the house and the
galleries to unbounded enthusiasm.
Mr. Dinsmore (Dem., Ark.), who was minister to Korea during the former Cleveland administration, in closing
the debate for the day defended the utterances of Mr. Bayard, as to the effect of protection, and to the great de-
light of the Democrats, read extracts
from Senator Chandler's interview, alleging that the McKinley became were
levying on the protected industries.

Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio denied the statements made regarding McKinley
by Senator Chandler.

HOUSE CUBAN RESOLUTIONS.

The Senate Foreign Committee Decides
to Back Them Up.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The senate
committee on foreign relations has decided to stand by the agreement reached
by the senate conference and to support
the house Cuban resolutions as a substitute for the senate resolutions on the same subject. The committee was not
a unit on the proposition, but it was carried by a safe majority. The discussion in the committee indicated that most of the members preferred the senate form
of resolutions, but there was placed
against this argument that of expedi-
ency, and this line of reasoning won the
day. Among the objections made to the house declaration were those based upon
the grammatical construction and the
reference to this country's commercial interest in the settlement of the Cuban
question.

These blenishes were generally admitted, but it was contended on the other hand that the house was wedded
to its expression and that it might be
even more difficult to get that body to accept the senate resolutions than it is
proving to be to get the senate to take
those of the house. It was also contended that the principal objection in
the senate was not so much to the house
resolution as to any expression whatever.

Senator Sherman, as chairman of the
committee, was requested to keep the Cuban question as well to the front as possible and to get a vote at the earliest
practicable date.

The President 59 Years Old.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—President
Cleveland was 59 years old yesterday.
There was no particular celebration of
the event at the White House and Mr.
Cleveland passed the day as usual, at
his desk. Some of his personal friends,
including Senator Vilas and Rev. Byron Sunderland, his pastor, remembered the
occasion, and called during the morning
to pay their respects.

SECRETARY SMITH ATTACKED.

Roasted by Cannon, Wolcott and Vest.
Latter Attacks Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—An animated controversy has arisen over the resolution of Mr. Cannon (Pop. Utah) directing Secretary Smith to execute the law for the public opening of the Uncompahgre Indian reservation, Utah.

Mr. Gordon (Dem., Ga.), responded that after a conference with Secretary
Smith he had learned that vast mineral wealth, particularly asphalt, existed on these lands. The secretary was desirous of protecting the government against rapacious persons and corporations seeking to control these valuable deposits.
The secretary felt that the government
ought to receive some benefit.

Secretary Smith was severely criticized by Senators Cannon (Utah), Wolcott (Colo.) and Vest (Mo.), and the last named said there had been a time when a cabinet officer who deliberately dis-
obeyed the law would be brought before the bar of the senate, but that it was now quite common for such officers to refuse to carry out the law. Mr. Vest
said the opening up of the asphalt regions in this reservation would result in greatly cheapening the product.

Mr. Vest declared there was a disposition on the part of the administration
not to treat the people of the west fairly and as if they did not know what they wanted. He referred to the late address of the president to the Presbyterian mission board in New York, the president standing on the thresholds of the rum holes and places of vice in New York and saying the people of the west needed missionary aid.

Senator Vest said that if the president
would hunt less ducks in North Carolina and silver Democrats in Kentucky
it would be better for the country.

Mr. Vilas offered an amendment to exempt asphalt lands from the operations of the law opening the reservation.

Favors More National Banks.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The bill introduced by Mr. Brosius (Pa.) to authorize the establishment of national banks in small cities has been ordered to be favorably reported by the house committee on banking and currency.

Arrived in Cuba With Arms.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The secretary of the Cuban league here, Mr.
Quesada, has received a telegram announcing the safe arrival in Cuba of General Enrique Collazo, with arms and ammunition.

Elected McKinley Delegates.

MERIDEN, Miss., March 19.—The Republicans of the Fifth district have elected McKinley delegates to St. Louis.

Cuban Filibusters Get Away.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., March 19.—
Custom House Inspector E. A. Higbee has learned that General Garcia and a band of Cuban patriots have left Somers Point harbor on the steamer Bernuda.
He has notified the secretary of war.

The Town Threatened For a Time.

SPOKANE, Wash., March 19.—Fire has destroyed the compressor mills of the Poorman and Tiger mines at Burke, Ida., entailing a loss of $300,000; fully insured. For a time the flames threatened to destroy the town.

Cyclonic Storm In Texas.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, MARCH 19.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

VOTE FOR THE BIBLE.

God's word cannot be put down in
the same list and on the same plane as
human creations. God will not permit it, and he will punish here, and
hereafter, those who attempt it.

KILL THE RUMOR.

The cunning politicians have their
unprincipled agents out spreading all
manner of false rumors. The latest
is that Mrs. R. B. Whitehead has
withdrawn from the contest. Mrs.
Whitehead is authority for the statement that she is in the fight, and will
remain there, by the blessing of God,
until the voters of East Liverpool,
and especially of the Third ward, decide for or against the Bible.

NOT NECESSARY TO VOTE.

The question has been asked the
NEWS REVIEW, by a number of lady
voters, as to whether there is any
necessity of them attending the Republican primaries in the Third ward.
There is not the shadow of necessity
for your going to the polls in the Third
ward, at the Republican primaries,
Saturday, March 21, as John N. Taylor and Will L. Smith are the Republican nominees in that ward, and none
others are to be voted for.

VERY CONFIDENT.

After the adjournment of the school
board meeting the other night, a
member of the board addressed John
N. Taylor, asking when the present
members would retire from office. Mr.
Taylor gave the information desired,
and then imparted the further news
that he would still continue on the
board, after the coming election. Now,
the gentleman may have positive
knowledge respecting the ballots to
be deposited in the Third ward on April 6, 1896; but we would remind
him that "the best laid plans of mice
and men," etc. Further, "there's
many a slip twixt the cup and the
lip." If John N. Taylor and Will L.
Smith can be elected members of the
school board from the Third ward, on
the "No Bible" ticket, then will we be
willing to acknowledge that, of a
truth, "mighty is the power of the
cunning politician."

CHRISTIAN MINISTERS.

Christian ministers of East Liver-
pool, you are engaged in a wonderful
work for the Master, in assisting Evangelist Schilvera in the series of meetings being held in the Fifth
street rink, and God's blessing will
rest upon and follow you for so doing.
But there is other work which the
Master has for you to do: the defense
of the Bible and your stern insistence
that God's word shall be honored and
upheld in the public schools. While
you are leading souls to Christ in the
rink, the enemies of the Bible in the
schools of this city are wide awake,
and using every power, fair and un-
fair, to accomplish their wicked end—
the prohibition of the reading of the Bible, by the teachers to the pupils, in the schools. You are the leaders of the Christian men and women of East Liverpool. You are intelligent.
You are bold and fearless for the right,
as becometh leaders of Israel. You
should use every power God has given
you in advocating the reading of His word in the schools. You should assist in organizing a staunch army of
men and women, led by well posted
and keen-witted men and women,
lovers of the Bible, to meet and check-
mate every unfair move made by the
opponents of the Bible. A house-to-
house canvass should be made in
every precinct and ward. Be up and
doing, leaders of Christian masses, and
our God will give you the victory.

FRANCE BACKS DOWN.

Didn't Mean to Talk So Bold to England.

THE TRIPLE ALLIANCE ON TOP.

Great Britain Can Now Go Ahead With
Her Campaign In the Sudan—The Troops Will Be Ready to Move on
April 1.

PARIS, March 19.—The French government gives evidence that the announcement made by M. Berthelot, the foreign minister, of the remonstrance he had offered against the Egyptian campaign up
the Nile in a conversation with the Marquis of Dufferin, British ambassador,
has been taken much more seriously
than they were prepared for. The outbreak of approval from the French press
and people and the popular clamor for
even more decisive measures of protest
seem to have alarmed the government
and awakened an apprehension that
they are being precipitated into a position
of hostility to the plan of Great Britain backed by the approval of the
triple alliance, which might entail the
gravest consequences. The enthusiasm
awakened in France, in fact, seems to
enter more into the apprehensions of
the French ministers than the irritation
abroad.

As a consequence steps have been
taken to dull a little the seemingly
sharp edge of the communication made
to the British ambassador by M. Berthelot, the minister of foreign affairs. An explanation with a distinct tone of de-
precation is made semi-officially that
the words "gravity of the consequences"
were only intended to apply to the use
of the Egyptian reserve fund, and it is
added M. Berthelot will make a statement to that effect.

It would seem that the triple alliance
has practically triumphed and that there will be no serious opposition upon
the part of France to the British advance up the Nile.

Le Jour, however, declares that Russia and France are in "complete accord
in regard to Egypt." But this may
mean little or nothing so far as inter-
fering with the plans of the Marquis of
Salisbury are concerned.

Additional dispatches received here
from Cairo show that the greatest activity prevails among the British Egyptian military officials there, and that
every step necessary to arrange for the
departure of the troops from Wady-
Halfa on April 1, as originally planned,
is being taken and that nobody there
seems to doubt that the plan of campaign will be carried out.

Venezuela's Sensible Action.

LONDON, March 19.—It is understood
here that Senor Andrade, the Venezue-
lan minister at Washington, has now decided to recognize the Uruan incident
as a separate question, and good hopes
are expressed that his entente will lead
to an agreement upon a scheme for the
settlement of the boundary dispute by direct negotiations between Great Britain and Venezuela.

A Postmaster's Wife Too Curious.

LANCASTER, Ky., March 19.—Mrs. J.
A. Hammond, wife of the postmaster
at Hobbie, who was arrested for tam-
pering with the mail, has confessed
that she broke open the decoy letter,
with three dollars in it, and did so
through curiosity and not for the purpose of obtaining money, which was replaced.

Our Food Not Adulterated.

LONDON, March 19.—At the session of the committee in the adulteration of food Mr. T. H. Elliott, secretary of the board of agriculture, testified that among
the samples of food examined by the
government 51 came from the United States and 39 from Canada, not one of
which was adulterated.

Accused of Smuggling Diamonds.

PHILADELPHIA, March 19.—Herman
Keck, a member of the Coeterman, Hin-
richs, Keck Diamond Cutting company
of Cincinnati, has been held in $3,000
bail by United States Commissioner Bell
to await the action of the grand jury
on the charge of smuggling diamonds
into this country.

Saw Guns Unloaded.

PRETORIA, March 19.—At the trial of the members of the Johannesburg reform committee an employee of the
"Simmer Jack" mine testified to seeing
arms and Maxim guns unloaded from
oil tanks. He estimated that 300 cases
of rifles and 24 Maxims were received.

Exonerated the Officials.

ST. LOUIS, March 19.—The coroner's
jury that has been investigating the collision on the Kirkwood Electric line on March 8, in which three men were killed
and about 50 people were injured, has
returned a verdict exonerating officials
of the company.

AMBASSADOR BAYARD'S SPEECHES.

The Censure Resolutions Debated In the House.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The house
has entered upon the consideration of
the resolutions censuring Mr. Bayard
for the speeches delivered by him before
the Grammar school of Boston, Eng-
land, and before the Edinburgh (Scotland) philosophical institution last fall.
The galleries were crowded to over-
flowing. Even the diplomatic gallery,
which is usually empty, contained a
number of the members of the diplomatic corps and their wives. With the exception of the speech of Mr. Cousins
(Iowa), however, the oratory of the occasion was disappointing.

Mr. Hitt, chairman of the foreign affairs committee, and Mr. McCrory,
who was chairman of the committee in
the last congress, opened respectively
for and against the resolutions. Mr.
Draper (Rep., Mass.), announced his
inability to bring himself to vote for
the resolutions of censure. If the utterances were inappropriate the punishment was too harsh.

Mr. Cousins' speech in support of
the resolutions was the feature of the proceedings. He won for himself high
distinction as an orator. His bursts of
eloquence, set off by a keen and pen-
etrating wit, aroused the house and the
galleries to unbounded enthusiasm.

Mr. Dismore (Dem., Ark.), who was minister to Korea during the former Cleveland administration, in closing
the debate for the day defended the utterances of Mr. Bayard, as to the effect of protection, and to the great de-
light of the Democrats, read extracts
from Senator Chandler's interview, alleging that the McKinley boomers were
levying on the protected industries.

Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio denied the statements made regarding McKinley
by Senator Chandler.

HOUSE CUBAN RESOLUTIONS.

The Senate Foreign Committee Decides
to Back Them Up.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The senate
committee on foreign relations has decided to stand by the agreement reached
by the senate conference and to support
the house Cuban resolutions as a substitute for the senate resolutions on the same subject. The committee was not
a unit on the proposition, but it was carried by a safe majority. The discussion in the committee indicated that most
of the members preferred the senate
form of resolutions, but there was placed
against this argument that of expedi-
ency, and this line of reasoning won the
day. Among the objections made to the
house declaration were those based upon
the grammatical construction and the
reference to this country's commercial interest in the settlement of the Cuban
question.

These blemishes were generally admitted, but it was contended on the
other hand that the house was wedded
to its expression and that it might be
even more difficult to get that body to
accept the senate resolutions than it is
proving to be to get the senate to take
those of the house. It was also con-
tended that the principal objection in
the senate was not so much to the house
resolution as to any expression whatever.

Senator Sherman, as chairman of the
committee, was requested to keep the
Cuban question as well to the front as
possible and to get a vote at the earliest
practicable date.

The President 59 Years Old.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—President
Cleveland was 59 years old yesterday.
There was no particular celebration of
the event at the White House and Mr.
Cleveland passed the day as usual, at
his desk. Some of his personal friends,
including Senator Vilas and Rev. Byron
Sunderland, his pastor, remembered the
occasion, and called during the morning
to pay their respects.

RIVAL CONVENTIONS

Held From One Platform In New York.

MCKINLEY DEVELOPS STRENGTH

In a Merton Stronghold—Riotous Scenes Occur at Conventions In Two Districts. Contesting Delegations the Result—Late Political News.

NEW YORK, March 19.—In all the congressional districts of this city, with the exception of the Sixteenth, the Republicans last night held conventions for the purpose of electing delegates and alternates to the national Republican convention in St. Louis next June. Two delegates and two alternates were chosen by the representatives of the various assembly districts, comprising the several congressional districts.

Turbulence and confusion were the chief characteristics in the Twelfth and Fifteenth districts. In the Twelfth district convention was held, it frequently looked as if only the presence of a squad of policemen prevented a scene of personal encounter between the opposing factions favoring Morton and McKinley as presidential candidates. In spite of the claims of Corneille N. Bliss and Colonel Crago, the anti-machine banner-bearers, that they had their bullwicks well in hand, they were defeated, but only after a stubborn fight. Even then they would not accept defeat, and under the leadership of George Bliss their cohorts got together and held an opposition convention and elected their own delegates. In consequence of this action there will be a contest before the national assembly.

A wild scene of riot and disorder marked the opening proceedings of the Fifteenth congressional district convention at Renwick hall. Over 1,000 excited men cheered, hooted and yelled at each other while Police Inspector Cartwright, Captain Dean, four police sergeants and 100 roundsmen and patrolmen vainly endeavored to restore some semblance of order. The fight was between the Platt and Brookfield factions.

Both sides elected chairmen, and ran rival conventions from the same platform, the police having to charge the different crowds at times to prevent rioting. It is the first time that two separate conventions have been held from the same platform at the same time in the history of politics in this city and it will have to be determined which faction is entitled to have their delegates seated at the national convention meets at St. Louis.

Both conventions elected delegates, the Brookfield men being instructed for McKinley and the Platt delegates for Morton.

The Morton delegates will be for McKinley if their candidate's name should be withdrawn.

There was also a split in the Thirtieth district, two sets of delegates being elected.

Morton delegates were elected in all other districts.

CAMPBELL IN THE RACE.

Brice Says He Is Despite the Ex-Governor's Denials.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Ex-Governor Campbell of Ohio has had a conference with Senator Brice and others of the Democratic party on political matters. Mr. Campbell took occasion to say to everyone who spoke to him on the presidential nomination that he was not a candidate, and had no expectation that he would become one. He repeated this statement, that has been heard before, in the presence of Senators Brice and Hill, as the three were chatting in the senate lobby.

When Mr. Campbell left, Mr. Brice continued to talk with Mr. Hill, and told the New York senator that next June would be time enough for Campbell to decline the nomination, but added that he would not do so then. Mr. Brice was unserved in saying that Campbell would be a candidate, and the Ohio senator probably knows more on that subject than Campbell does.

ENTHUSIASTIC FOR MCKINLEY.

A Strong Resolution Adopted by Wisconsin Republican Convention.

MILWAUKEE, March 19.—The Republican state convention, after adopting a sound money and protective tariff and reciprocity platform, also declaring sympathy for Cuba, swore allegiance to McKinley by enthusiastically adopting the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Republicans of Wisconsin recognize in Hon. William McKinley of Ohio the most distinguished champion of the Republican policy of protection and reciprocity. That we heartily commend the defender of a sound system of finance and believe in him as a type of the best American citizenship, in both public and private life. And we hereby express to the delegates elected to the St. Louis convention our judgment that they should use all reasonable effort to secure his nomination for the presidency.

The delegates at large are Sawyer, Ford, Stout and Elliott.

MORTON MAY WITHDRAW.

His Chances Gone For a United New York Delegation.

ALBANY, March 19.—According to reports in circulation at the state capital there is a possibility that Governor Morton may withdraw from the contest for the presidential nomination. He said positively last December that he would not allow his name to be presented at the national convention unless the delegation from this state was unanimous in supporting him.

Since the development of the strong McKinley sentiment in the western section of the state it has become apparent that the delegation cannot be kept solid for Morton, although Mr. Platt and his lieutenants have been working hard to secure this result. In such an event it is believed by some that the governor will carry out the intention he so positively expressed and withdraw from the field.

FLORENCE, S. C., March 19.—The Sixth congressional district convention has elected delegates to St. Louis for McKinley.

FOR A SERIOUS OFFENSE.

A Young Tennessean on Trial In Washington—Prominent People Figure.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The frequently deferred trial of Benjamin H. Milliken, a well-known young Tennessean, accused of housebreaking July 4 last with intent to commit a rape on Miss Gertrude Phillips, daughter of ex-Solicitor General Samuel F. Phillips, and well known in society, has begun in the criminal court here. Milliken pleaded not guilty, and thereupon the prosecution and defense outlined their course.

District Attorney Birney said he would prove that Milliken called at Judge Phillips' house on the night of July 4 last, that Miss Phillips refused to see him and sent down to him a number of gifts he had presented to her. Milliken then went away and about 1 o'clock the next morning Miss Phillips was awakened by a slight noise and an odor of what she thought was chloroform. The government contended that as the door was locked Milliken must have entered the room early. The screams of his daughter aroused Judge Phillips and he found Milliken in the room of a rear shed.

Ex-Solicitor General John Goode, counsel for the defense, contended that Milliken was not in a mental or physical condition to have committed the offense charged. There was no intention, he said, to reflect on Miss Phillips' character. His client not realizing his condition, had called on the young lady and though she excused herself he entered the parlor unnoticed by the family and fell asleep.

When he awoke he supposed he was at his own home and retired as he thought to his room, learning his mistake only when he recognized Judge Phillips.

The first witness was Judge Phillips, who testified that he was aroused shortly after midnight by his daughter's screams, found her in convulsions and then found a man in the closet, who later, escaping to a rear roof, proved to be Milliken. Miss Gertrude Phillips and her elder sister testified substantially to the same effect, and also to the fact that Milliken was a frequent caller. Miss Gertrude admitted that she and Milliken had been in love with each other.

INTERSTATE LEAGUE BROKEN.

Two Towns Withdraw—Other Places May Be Substituted.

WHEELING, March 19.—The Interstate Baseball League has gone to pieces here. The pieces may be patched together again, but it looks decidedly doubtful. Of the six cities, four were represented, as follows: Wheeling, Toledo, Fort Wayne and Washington, Pa.

Youngstown and New Castle sent their proxies to President C. B. Power of Pittsburgh. It was the intention to post the $500 guarantee, but as neither New Castle or Youngstown were present, those clubs were not ready to come up.

Myers of Fort Wayne then objected to remaining in the league, claiming every club should have been present to deposit its $500. He withdrew from the meeting and induced Gunnels of Toledo, both joining the Michigan State League by telegraph.

President Power will hold Wheeling, New Castle, Youngstown and Washington together and try to secure two out of the following towns to complete the Interstate circuit: Franklin, Oil City, Uhrichsville, Dennison, Heansville and Celeron.

Manderson and Thurston Agree.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Senator Thurston of Nebraska is entirely willing that the Nebraska delegates should be instructed to present the name of Mr. Manderson to the St. Louis convention, provided it should be apparent that this could be done without endangering the chances of Mr. McKinley. ### DESPERADO TIBBS WOUNDED.

A Wild Western Duel on the Street In Uniontown.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 19.—In a fight with a posse of officers who tried to arrest him, "Eatabile" Tibbs, a well-known outlaw of this place, was fatally shot. It was a hand-to-hand encounter during which 23 shots were fired. Tibbs escaped and went to a house on Grant street, where he is lying with a bullet in his lungs. The officers had a warrant for Tibbs on a charge of highway robbery.

Last week Tibbs went into court heavily armed with the declared intention of shooting Judge Mestrezat if the latter sentenced him on an old charge which hangs over him. He also hunted for the judge Tuesday to even up old scores, but fortunately did not see him.

Tibbs is one of the most dangerous daredevils that ever lived in this section. He shot several men in Virginia, his native state, and has also done some shooting here before this. The outlaw played a conspicuous and sensational part in the Augustine bawdy house case, frequently interrupting the court and on one occasion going up beside Judge Mestrezat on the bench.

The funeral of the 18-month-old child of Harry Lounds, of Wellsville, took place yesterday afternoon, and was attended by many persons from this city.

James Polk Green, of Calcutta road, who was injured about two weeks ago by the caving in of a bank, has recovered sufficiently to be able to be out again.

Since the moderation of the weather within the past two days the snow has become melted and the soft earth turned into mud, leaving the unpaved streets in the usual deplorable condition.

The Knights of the Golden Eagle initiated two new candidates for membership last night and acted favorably upon the names of six applicants, to go through the next meeting night.

Now that easter is approaching many of the storekeepers have commenced to decorate their show windows with appropriate novelties, in honor of the opening of the season of festivity and joy.

George Carey received his contract from Syracuse on Monday, and returned it yesterday with his signature attached, as the terms were satisfactory to him. He will leave in two weeks for that city. Mercer will report for duty a week from next Monday.

F. H. Bostwick, the retiring manager of the electric light plant, accompanied by his wife, bade goodbye to the city yesterday afternoon and left for Medina to spend a week at that place with relatives. Mr. Bostwick will enter upon his new duties in Denver, Col., the first of next month.

There was a good attendance of the members of the Republican central committee at the meeting in the city hall last night. Final action in regard to the adoption of rules governing the primaries on Saturday next was taken. Other business of minor importance was also disposed of, and after a warm session the meeting adjourned.

Jack Darragh is no more the manager of the Wheeling club, as he has been released and Moreland engaged. This action was caused by the fact that Moreland could secure a ground for the team were he to be engaged, and Darragh could not. Darragh has offers from several other clubs that want to secure his services for the coming season.

The people that passed along Sixth street at an early hour this morning were compelled to go through water almost knee deep, when they crossed the alley back of the Hotel Grand, and suggestions were made that it would be advisable to build a bridge across the alley. The water would not run off, because somebody had placed a box in the gutter.

Although the snow was almost gone last night, the small boys did some snowballing. One lad hit a prominent business man and was chased and captured and the man started with him for city hall, but the youngster cried so loud that he was let go with a severe lecture. Another boy on Fifth street, in attempting to hit a playmate, missed him and hit a passerby on the cheek, and the air was filled with blue smoke for a few moments.

Clerk Gipner has as yet received no answers to the letters he has written to the cities that own their electric light plants, asking for information on the subject, in order that the committee here may have something definite to work on, and he says he don't expect any, as the various light plants don't seem to want to impart any more information than is absolutely necessary. The committee will not endeavor to do anything until Superintendent Morley is well enough to attend their next meeting, and that will be some time yet.

WEYLER TALKS OF RESIGNING.

He Says Many Are Flocking to the Cuban Standard.

MADRID, March 19.—In an interview with General Weyler, published here, the captain general is quoted as expressing great surprise at the charges made against him in the United States "in view of his great prudence pending the settlement of the question of belligerency."

General Weyler is also credited with having said that the attitude of congress stops the normal development of the war.

Continuing, the interview places General Weyler on record as saying that numbers of persons are joining the insurgents from all parts of Cuba and even from the capital, Havana, because they hope they will be recognized as belligerents.

The Spanish soldiers, the captain-general is said to have added, are fighting heroically and it is impossible to ask them to do more.

In conclusion General Weyler is said to have said that he is confident of the eventual success of the Spanish cause, but the contradictory demands of prudence and extreme measures, combined with the difficulties arising from the question of belligerency and the elections may compel him to resign.

Held From One Platform In New York.

MCKINLEY DEVELOPS STRENGTH

In a Morton Stronghold—Riotous Scenes Occur at Conventions in Two Districts. Contesting Delegations the Result—Late Political News.

NEW YORK, March 19.—In all the congressional districts of this city, with the exception of the Sixteenth, the Republicans last night held conventions for the purpose of electing delegates and alternates to the national Republican convention in St. Louis next June. Two delegates and two alternates were chosen by the representatives of the various assembly districts, comprising the several congressional districts.

Turbulence and confusion were the chief characteristics in the Twelfth and Fifteenth districts.

In the Murray Hill district, where the Twelfth district convention was held, it frequently looked as if only the presence of a squad of policemen prevented a scene of personal encounter between the opposing factions favoring Morton and McKinley as presidential candidates. In spite of the claims of Cornelius N. Bliss and Colonel Cruger, the anti-machine banner-bearers, that they had their back well in hand, they were defeated, but only after a stubborn fight. Even then they would not accept defeat, and under the leadership of George Bliss their cohorts got together and held an opposition convention and elected their own delegates. In consequence of this action there will be a contest before the national assembly.

A wild scene of riot and disorder marked the opening proceedings of the Fifteenth congressional district convention at Renwick hall. Over 1,000 excited men cheered, hooted and yelled at each other while Police Inspector Cartwright, Captain Dean, four police sergeants and 100 roundsmen and patrolmen vainly endeavored to restore something like a semblance of order. The fight was between the Platt and Brookfield factions.

Both sides elected chairmen, and ran rival conventions from the same platform, the police having to charge the different crowds at times to prevent rioting. It is the first time that two separate conventions have been held from the same platform at the same time in the history of politics in this city and it will have to be determined which faction is entitled to have their delegates seated when the national convention meets at St. Louis.

Both conventions elected delegates, the Brookfield men being instructed for McKinley and the Platt delegates for Morton.

The Morton delegates will be for McKinley if their candidate's name should be withdrawn.

There was also a split in the Thirtieth district, two sets of delegates being elected.

Morton delegates were elected in all other districts.

COLUMBUS, March 19.—John A. Kight, cashier of the Fifth Avenue Savings bank, has been arrested, charged with having embezzled $80,000. May Be Tried Next Month.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The senate in executive session has confirmed the nomination of John H. Pack to be collector of customs for the district of Miami, O.

DESPERADO TIBBS WOUNDED.

A Wild Western Duel on the Street In Uniontown.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 19.—In a fight with a posse of officers who tried to arrest him, "Eatabile" Tibbs, a well-known outlaw of this place, was fatally shot. It was a hand-to-hand encounter during which 23 shots were fired. Tibbs escaped and went to a house on Grant street, where he is dying with a bullet in his lungs. The officers had a warrant for Tibbs on a charge of highway robbery.

Last week Tibbs went into court heavily armed with the declared intention of shooting Judge Mestrezat if the latter sentenced him on an old charge which hangs over him. He also hunted for the judge Tuesday to even up old scores, but fortunately did not see him.

Tibbs is one of the most dangerous daredevils that ever lived in this section. He shot several men in Virginia, his native state, and has also done some shooting here before this. The outlaw played a conspicuous and sensational part in the Augustine bawdy house case, frequently interrupting the court and on one occasion going up beside Judge Mestrezat on the bench.

Voted to Admit Women.

PHILADELPHIA, March 19.—The M. E. conference in session here has voted, 117 to 89, to admit women as lay delegates to the general conference. The proposition to increase the ratio of representation in the general conference was defeated—25 to 176.

There was a good attendance of the members of the Republican central committee at the meeting in the city hall last night. Final action in regard to the adoption of rules governing the primaries on Saturday next was taken. Other business of minor importance was also disposed of, and after a warm session the meeting adjourned.

Jack Darragh is no more the manager of the Wheeling club, as he has been released and Moreland engaged. This action was caused by the fact that Moreland could secure a ground for the team were he to be engaged, and Darragh could not. Darragh has offers from several other clubs that want to secure his services for the coming season.

The people that passed along Sixth street at an early hour this morning were compelled to go through water almost knee deep, when they crossed the alley back of the Hotel Grand, and suggestions were made that it would be advisable to build a bridge across the alley. The water would not run off, because somebody had placed a box in the gutter.

Although the snow was almost gone last night, the small boys did some snowballing. One lad bit a prominent business man and was chased and captured and the man started with him for city hall, but the youngster cried so loud that he was let go with a severe lecture. Another boy on Fifth street, in attempting to hit a playmate, missed him and hit a passerby on the cheek, and the air was filled with blue smoke for a few moments.

Clerk Gipner has as yet received no answers to the letters he has written to the cities that own their electric light plants, asking for information on the subject, in order that the committee here may have something definite to work on, and he says he don't expect any, as the various light plants don't seem to want to impart any more information than is absolutely necessary. The committee will not endeavor to do anything until Superintendent Morley is well enough to attend their next meeting, and that will be some time yet.

WEYLER TALKS OF RESIGNING.

He Says Many Are Flocking to the Cuban Standard.

MADRID, March 19.—In an interview with General Weyler, published here, the captain general is quoted as expressing great surprise at the charges made against him in the United States "in view of his great prudence pending the settlement of the question of belligerency."

General Weyler is also credited with having said that the attitude of congress stops the normal development of the war.

Continuing, the interview places General Weyler on record as saying that numbers of persons are joining the insurgents from all parts of Cuba and even from the capital, Havana, because they hope they will be recognized as belligerents.

The Spanish soldiers, the captain-general is said to have added, are fighting heroically and it is impossible to ask them to do more.

In conclusion General Weyler is said to have said that he is confident of the eventual success of the Spanish cause, but, the contradictory demands of prudence and extreme measures, combined with the difficulties arising from the question of belligerency and the elections may compel him to resign.

IN BAD CONDITION.

Almost an Impossibility For Children to Get to School.

Residents living along the Lisbon road who send their children to the Sixth street school are complaining about the lack of convenience for their children to get to school. They say that the children first have to cross Lisbon road, which is in an awful condition, the boys who have boots on often carrying others across on their backs. Then they have to cross Tanyard run, which is not even supplied with the semblance of a bridge, the children at times laying rocks to cross on. After this they have to climb a bank to the railroad and then cross the track. After they get over the track there is a place that is sadly in need of filling up. Scores of children didn't go to school this morning on account of the unusually bad condition of the road and run, caused by the rain of last night, and many have staid away all winter. The residents think the road should be fixed, a bridge built across the run, and several fills made, and steps built up the hill; which is nothing more than justice to them. This subject was taken up in council some time ago, but the idea was advanced that it was better for the children to go up to Eighth street and cross the track there and go to school by the way of Sixth street, as it was dangerous for them to cross near the West End pottery; but the children, if they do go as far as Eighth street to cross, walk down the track and climb the hill instead of going to Sixth street, thus making it much more dangerous. The residents sincerely hope council will do something with this matter at their next meeting, and think it would be better to provide steps for the children at this point than to make them walk nearly a quarter of a mile out of their way to get to school.

THE SPRING POET.

He is Early on Hand, and Here's the First Effort.

If any of our readers can catch the poet, he will discover that he has come out from his lair entirely too previous. There is a standing reward for his apprehension, dead or alive:

There is old Colonel Hill
And young Captain Hill
Is old Colonel Hill's brave son.
And young Captain Hill
Will be old Colonel Hill
When old Colonel Hill is gone.

Will Be on Sale.

Owing to the request of many people who have heard Mr. W. C. Weeden, the talented vocalist, sing the pathetic and touching song, "Papa, Shall I Look For You?" that gentleman has decided to send for a number of copies of the song, and they will be placed on sale at Ferguson & Hill's store. The picture, song and story will be offered at exactly the publisher's price, two copies for five cents, as Mr. Weeden does not wish to make any money out of it, but merely to grant the request of many people. The song, as sung by Mr. Weeden, is one of the most beautiful pieces ever heard in the city, and everyone should avail themselves of this opportunity to purchase a copy.

"Perhaps you would not think so, out a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Cyrus Edson. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. There are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one, get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Doctor Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Wants a Teacher.

A resident of the Third ward called in this office today and stated that he would like to have a teacher for a room in the Sixth street building, as the regular teacher was sick, and there was no substitute to take her place, on account of teachers being discharged by the board of education and the substitutes being given their places. He says that his children are now staying at home, as they have no school to go to.

CAUCUS MEETING.

The Various Wards Select Delegates for the Democratic Convention Tonight.

The Democrats of the city held their ward caucuses at the city hall last night, and selected delegates to the convention to be held this evening. The nominee for council in the First ward is on the labor ticket, as is also the nominee for assessor. In the Second ward caucus an effort was made to nominate a school board ticket, but it failed.

Sowing the Wind.

"Sowing the Wind," the best play we have had from the pen of that most interesting of English playwrights, Mr. Sydney Grundy, is a drama that has perhaps been the source of more discussion than any dramatic production seen in New York in years. It is in four acts and has for its main theme the social inequality of the sexes, namely the unlimited field for men's moral diversion, and the small world in which our women must live, to keep in the good graces of society. This play will be presented here with a strong cast at the Grand on Saturday evening, March 21.

Thought It Was a Show.

A young man of this city who is opposed to the Bible in the public schools was calling on his best girl the other evening, and after he had taken his hat and they were standing on the porch the following conversation was overheard. The man, whose name is Jack, said: "Matilda, I want you to be ready to go with me to the polls on Saturday, as that is the day of the primary election," and Matilda answered thusly: "Jack, is that a fit show for a lady to go to?" It is safe to say that this intelligent (?) lady is opposed to the Bible in the schools.

Unseemly Conduct.

The NEWS REVIEW wishes to call attention to the hooting, cat calls, yelling, profane and vulgar language that is indulged in on the streets after the meetings are over at the rink by persons who call themselves men. Marshal Wyman will win the warm thanks of all law loving people of the city if he takes these persons and reprimands them, and, if necessary, makes a few arrests.

A Special Train.

A special train will be run from Toronto to this city tonight, in order that a delegation from that city may attend the revival services here. The delegation will number over a hundred people and they will be met at the station, and instead of going to the rink will be taken to the First Presbyterian church, where services will be held.

A Sagger Fell.

While Calvin Bailey, a kilnhand of Sebring's pottery, was at work inside of the kiln yesterday afternoon a sagger fell and struck him on the back, bruising him considerably. Bailey is not seriously injured, but will be obliged to discontinue work for a few days.

OHIO VALLEY GAS CONSUMERS.

Consumers on the Ohio Valley Gas company lines are hereby notified that hereafter all bills must be paid on or before the 10th of each month, in advance. All consumers being in arrears at this time must settle on or before March 20 or supply will be discontinued.

A Bright Thought.

A small, bright youngster came home from school the other day and looking up at his father said: "Papa, the superintendent of the schools doesn't believe in future punishment, but he does believe in present punishment."

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says, "and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Bad dreams distress the man whose digestion is out of order. Constipation creates more dreams than are in the infernal regions. People who are troubled with constipation sleep badly and restlessly. Sometimes they can't sleep at all, and when they do sleep, the dreams come. It doesn't take so very long to wear a man out with that sort of thing. He gets up in the morning feeling worse than he did when he went to bed. He is listless and without energy. The chances are he is dizzy, has "heartburn," palpitation, sees black spots before his eyes, has headache and is bilious. What nonsense it is to let a condition of that sort continue. Nine-tenths of all the sickness in the world comes from constipation and neglect of it. It is a simple thing to cure if you go about it right. It's a bad thing and a serious thing if you don't take the right medicine. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are designed for the cure of constipation. The "Pellets" are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One is a laxative, two a mild cathartic. Everybody who has ever used them has a good word for them. They have prevented more serious illness than any other remedy ever sold. Druggists sell them, and an honest druggist will not try to sell you something else.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is the greatest family doctor book ever published. It explains human physiology and the laws of life and health in plain yet scientific language. It has had a tremendous sale; 680,000 copies at $1.50 each, bound in cloth. The present free edition is the same in all respects except that it is bound in strong manila paper covers. A copy will be absolutely given away to anyone who sends 21 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

SEVERE INJURIES

Were Received by the Man Thrown Out of Massey's Saloon.

John Skelley, the man referred to by Evangelist Schiverea at the meeting last night as having been thrown out of a saloon on West Market street yesterday, sustained severe injuries. A mistake was made in the given name of the saloonist, as it is James instead of Bill. Massey was interviewed by a NEWS REVIEW reporter and stated that Skelley had come into his place drunk, and he ordered him out. An altercation ensued and they clinched, falling down a few steps to the pavement, and Massey claims this is how he got his injuries. He further stated that he would like to get Evangelist Schiverea in his place of business, as it would be the delight of his life to give that gentleman a severe thrashing. He says he would throw him out in a different manner.

DISGRACEFUL.

The Action of Two Young Men and Two Girls.

A story was told in the morning meeting at the First U. P. church yesterday in regard to the actions of two young men of the East End and two girls of this city that is certainly disgraceful. A lady, whose veracity cannot be questioned, arose and stated that two young men of East End had taken two girls who were in an intoxicated condition to the steps of the store room immediately opposite the rink while the revival services were in progress on Tuesday evening, and then deserted them. The girls were found there by good Christian people, who saw that they were conveyed to their homes. The lady stated that she knew the story was true. It is a shame that men will so far forget themselves as to lead young girls down to perdition in such a manner as this.

PASSED AWAY.

An Aged Lady Succumbs to a Stroke of Paralysis.

Mrs. Mary Cartledge, aged 78 years, died at 1 o'clock this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Bently Pope, of Thompson place. The aged lady was stricken with a stroke of paralysis a few months ago, and gradually grew worse, it subsequently ending in her death. Deceased came here from Trenton with the Pope family some five years ago, and up until receiving the fatal stroke, she was never ill. Services will be conducted at the home tomorrow afternoon by Reverend Taggart, and interment will be made in Riverview cemetery.

FUNDS RAISED

To Pay the Passage of Lizzie Spring to England.

General Agent Lloyd, of the humane society, through the kindness of citizens, has raised sufficient funds to send Lizzie Spring, the unfortunate young girl, to the home of her parents, who reside in Birmingham, England. The township trustees have not got the authority to advance any money for this purpose, therefore recourse had to be found in the generosity of the people. The girl will leave for England in a few days.

Brand Them.

Grocers of the city are strongly in favor of the legislature compelling men who handle apples by the barrel, to place a brand upon barrels, in order that the purchaser can catch the trickster who "tops and bottoms" with nice fruit, and fills in with the meanest kind of apples the orchard produces.

HAVE YOU NEURALGIA?

Something About That Maddening Ill That Flees Its Heir To.

Though it may appear strange to us who think we are familiar with the commoner forms of neuralgia, or nerve pain, such as toothache, headache and the like, it is not easy always to say whether the pain we are suffering is really a neuralgia pure and simple.

In point of fact, neuralgia is a name for a condition rather than a disease, and only implies that in the course of the nerve in question there is pain that is not caused by any disease of the parts supplied by that nerve or of the nerve itself.

The causes of neuralgia, then, are to be found in conditions outside of the trouble itself. For instance, there may be a tumor pressing upon the nerve and continually irritating it. In the same way foreign bodies, such as bullets, may set up a persistent neuralgia. Ends of nerves, by becoming involved in the contraction of a scar, may become sufficiently compressed to give rise to unbearable pain. Sometimes veins that are near nerves, or follow their course through long, bony canals, become sufficiently distended to irritate the nerve.

Or there may be poison in the blood, like malaria, arsenic or lead, which, by lowering the general vitality of the body, contributes to a general nerve weakness and irritability.

In a large proportion of cases the real cause of neuralgia is so general as to be quite obscure. The exciting cause—or occasion—of a single attack of neuralgia is usually getting chilled or over-exercising the part subject to the complaint.

As many of us know by experience, the course of an attack of neuralgia is extremely varied. The pain may be continuous, remittent or intermittent, temporary or persistent, located at one spot or diffused over a large area, and may be shooting, aching or burning in character.

By way of treatment we may use locally any good liniment, blistering, hot fomentations or electricity. Iron and quinine are of the greatest value internally, especially where the system is run down or there is a malarial taint in the blood. Antirheumatics must, of course, be resorted to in cases of a rheumatic origin. In these latter cases there is nothing like absolute rest and regular and nourishing diet.

Morphine or other opiates should be used but sparingly in neuralgia, and never in cases of debility or old age.—Youth's Companion.

A young man of this city who is opposed to the Bible in the public schools was calling on his best girl the other evening, and after he had taken his hat and they were standing on the porch the following conversation was overheard. The man, whose name is Jack, said: "Matilda, I want you to be ready to go with me to the polls on Saturday, as that is the day of the primary election." and Matilda answered thusly: "Jack, is that a fit show for a lady to go to?" It is safe to say that this intelligent (?) lady is opposed to the Bible in the schools.

Unseemly Conduct.

THE NEWS REVIEW wishes to call attention to the hooting, cat calls, yelling, profane and vulgar language that is indulged in on the streets after the meetings are over at the rink by persons who call themselves men. Marshal Wyman will win the warm thanks of all law loving people of the city if he watches these persons and reprimands them, and, if necessary, makes a few arrests.

A Special Train.

A special train will be run from Toronto to this city tonight, in order that a delegation from that city may attend the revival services here. The delegation will number over a hundred people and they will be met at the station, and instead of going to the rink will be taken to the First Presbyterian church, where services will be held.

A Sagger Fell.

While Calvin Bailey, a kilnhand of Sebring's pottery, was at work inside of the kiln yesterday afternoon a sagger fell and struck him on the back, bruising him considerably. Bailey is not seriously injured, but will be obliged to discontinue work for a few days.

OHIO VALLEY GAS CONSUMERS.

Consumers on the Ohio Valley Gas company lines are hereby notified that hereafter all bills must be paid on or before the 10th of each month, in advance. All consumers being in arrears at this time must settle on or before March 20 or supply will be discontinued.

A Bright Thought.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says, "and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Bad dreams distress the man whose digestion is out of order. Constipation creates more dreams than are in the infernal regions. People who are troubled with constipation sleep badly and restlessly. Sometimes they cannot sleep at all, and when they do sleep, the dreams come. It doesn't take so very long to wear a man out with that sort of thing. He gets up in the morning feeling worse than he did when he went to bed. He is listless and without energy. The chances are he is dizzy, has "heartburn," palpitation, sees black spots before his eyes, has headache and is bilious. What nonsense it is to let a condition of that sort continue. Nine-tenths of all the sickness in the world comes from constipation and neglect of it. It is a simple thing to cure if you go about it right. It's a bad thing and a serious thing if you don't take the right medicine. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are designed for the cure of constipation. The "Pellets" are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One is a laxative, two a mild cathartic. Everybody who has ever used them has a good word for them. They have prevented more serious illness than any other remedy ever sold. Druggists sell them, and an honest druggist will not try to sell you something else.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is the greatest family doctor book ever published. It explains human physiology and the laws of life and health in plain yet scientific language. It had a tremendous sale; 680,000 copies at $1.50 each, bound in cloth. The present free edition is the same in all respects except that it is bound in strong manilla paper covers. A copy will be absolutely given away to anyone who sends 21 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

SEVERE INJURIES

Were Received by the Man Thrown Out of Massey's Saloon.

John Skelley, the man referred to by Evangelist Schiverea at the meeting last night as having been thrown out of a saloon on West Market street yesterday, sustained severe injuries. A mistake was made in the given name of the saloonist, as it is James instead of Bill. Massey was interviewed by a NEWS REVIEW reporter and stated that Skelley had come into his place drunk, and he ordered him out. An altercation ensued and they clinched, falling down a few steps to the pavement, and Massey claims this is how he got his injuries. He further stated that he would like to get Evangelist Schiverea in his place of business, as it would be the delight of his life to give that gentleman a severe thrashing. He says he would throw him out in a different manner.

DISGRACEFUL.

The Action of Two Young Men and Two Girls.

A story was told in the morning meeting at the First U. P. church yesterday in regard to the actions of two young men of the East End and two girls of this city that is certainly disgraceful. A lady, whose veracity cannot be questioned, arose and stated that two young men of East End had taken two girls who were in an intoxicated condition to the steps of the store room immediately opposite the rink while the revival services were in progress on Tuesday evening, and then deserted them. The girls were found there by good Christian people, who saw that they were conveyed to their homes. The lady stated that she knew the story was true. It is a shame that men will so far forget themselves as to lead young girls down to perdition in such a manner as this.

PASSED AWAY.

An Aged Lady Succumbs to a Stroke of Paralysis.

Mrs. Mary Cartledge, aged 78 years, died at 1 o'clock this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Bentley Pope, of Thompson place. The aged lady was stricken with a stroke of paralysis a few months ago, and gradually grew worse, it subsequently ending in her death. Deceased came here from Trenton with the Pope family some five years ago, and up until receiving the fatal stroke, she was never ill. Services will be conducted at the home tomorrow afternoon by Reverend Taggart, and interment will be made in Riverview cemetery.

FUNDS RAISED

To Pay the Passage of Lizzie Spring to England.

General Agent Lloyd, of the humane society, through the kindness of citizens, has raised sufficient funds to send Lizzie Spring, the unfortunate young girl, to the home of her parents, who reside in Birmingham, England. The township trustees have not got the authority to advance any money for this purpose, therefore recourse had to be found in the generosity of the people. The girl will leave for England in a few days.

Brand Them.

Grocers of the city are strongly in favor of the legislature compelling men who handle apples by the barrel, to place a brand upon barrels, in order that the purchaser can catch the trickster who "tops and bottoms" with nice fruit, and fills in with the meanest kind of apples the orchard produces.

HAVE YOU NEURALGIA?

Something About That Maddening Ill That Flees Its Host.

Though it may appear strange to us who think we are familiar with the commoner forms of neuralgia, or nerve pain, such as toothache, headache and the like, it is not easy always to say whether the pain we are suffering be really a neuralgia pure and simple.

In point of fact, neuralgia is a name for a condition rather than a disease, and only implies that in the course of the nerve in question there is pain that is not caused by any disease of the parts supplied by that nerve or of the nerve itself.

The causes of neuralgia, then, are to be found in conditions outside of the trouble itself. For instance, there may be a tumor pressing upon the nerve and continually irritating it. In the same way foreign bodies, such as bullets, may set up a persistent neuralgia. Ends of nerves, by becoming involved in the contraction of a scar, may become sufficiently compressed to give rise to unbearable pain. Sometimes veins that are near nerves, or follow their course through long, bony canals, become sufficiently distended to irritate the nerve.

Or there may be poison in the blood, like malaria, arsenic or lead, which, by lowering the general vitality of the body, contributes to a general nerve weakness and irritability.

In a large proportion of cases the real cause of neuralgia is so general as to be quite obscure. The exciting cause—or occasion—of a single attack of neuralgia is usually getting chilled or over-exercising the part subject to the complaint.

As many of us know by experience, the course of an attack of neuralgia is extremely varied. The pain may be continuous, remittent or intermittent, temporary or persistent, located at one spot or diffused over a large area, and may be shooting, aching or burning in character.

By way of treatment we may use locally any good liniment, blistering, hot fomentations or electricity. Iron and quinine are of the greatest value internally, especially where the system is run down or there is a malarial taint in the blood. Antirheumatics must, of course, be resorted to in cases of a rheumatic origin. In these latter cases there is nothing like absolute rest and regular and nourishing diet.

Morphine or other opiates should be used but sparingly in neuralgia, and never in cases of debility or old age.—Youth's Companion.
